

Kinross boasts two 18-hole courses - The Bruce and The Montgomery. Bordering the historic banks of Loch Leven and located within striking distance of St Andrews, Gleneagles and Carnoustie, our courses are two of the finest examples of Scottish parkland golf and can be easily reached within an hour from Perth, Edinburgh and Glasgow.

We warmly welcome visiting golfers and golfing societies from across the UK and beyond and have a well-deserved reputation for affordability, flexibility and first-rate facilities.

The Montgomery Course is ideal for experienced golfers with only a handful of golfers managing to break 80; whilst The Bruce is preferred by occasional golfers but still has its own challenges with its par-39 outward 9.

Kinross welcomes visiting golfers from across the UK and beyond and we continue to offer flexible and affordable packages. Our green fees start from £20 a round and our weekend day tickets start at only £64 so we really do provide golfers with the opportunity to play two fantastic courses at affordable prices.
